

Faculty of Architecture and Planning, Thammasat University Notification

No. 284/2022

on

The Successful Candidates to Receive the Fast Track Graduate Scholarship for International Students for the Master of Science in Design, Business and Technology
Management (English Program), Academic year 2022
.....

According to the faculty announcement dated 10 October 2022 on the Fast Track Graduate Scholarship for International Students for the Master of Science in Design, Business and Technology Management (English Program), the selection process has now been completed and the successful candidates are:

1) Mr. Ing Songpor

The selected students have to be compliant to all the following conditions.

1. The student must have accumulated grade point average (GPAX) not lower than 3.00 and must not have any "U", "F", or "W" results in the official transcript. In case that GPAX is lower than 3.00 in any semester, student shall be suspended from receiving the scholarship in the following semester.
2. The scholarship covers only tuition fees. Student is not allowed to register more credits than suggested by the program.
3. The student is obligated to dedicate to any activities organized by the Design, Business and Technology Management Program for at least 24 accumulated hours per semester.
4. The student have to follow all disciplinary rules. Violation would make the student disqualified for scholarship. In that case, the paid tuition fee have to be reimbursed within 30 days.
5. The student who withdraw from any courses, have to pay the tuition fee of such withdrawn courses back to the Design, Business and Technology Management Program within 30 days.
6. Any other matters shall be under the ultimate decision of the director of the Design, Business and Technology Management Program.

Academic calendar and any other relevant Information will be posted at www.tds.tu.ac.th.

Given on 8 December 2022

(Associate Professor Daranee Jareemit, Ph.D.)
Associate Dean for Corporate Management
Acting on behalf of the Dean, Faculty of Architecture and Planning,
Thammasat University